

The Vocabulary words should be memorized and the Quiz Information concepts should be understood in order to grasp the essential information for the science unit. You will be quizzed weekly over this content, and it will appear on exams.

Key Ideas

Pick 3 important facts on three different slides and list them below. Give the name of the slide and write the fact in a complete sentence.

1. Name of Slide: _____

a. Important Fact:

2. Name of Slide: _____

a. Important Fact:

3. Name of Slide: _____

a. Important Fact:

Quiz Information

Included on Quiz

- The created world points to God
 - Different parts of creation reveal different perfections of God
 - Everything we learn about God and His creation is another reason for loving Him
- Science is limited to the physical world
 - Observations require physical data
 - Science cannot draw conclusions about the immaterial portion of reality
 - Science cannot tell us
 - How creation began
 - The purpose of creation
 - Our purpose
- We cannot understand the physical universe without God!
- Scientific knowledge is only one category about truth
 - About physical, created world

- Scientific theories are true to the best of our knowledge
 - We can be wrong about things
- Scientific knowledge is not necessary for salvation
 - Therefore, it is okay if science is not always correct
- Creation can teach us truth about God
 - This is the role of philosophy, not modern science
 - Creation reveals that God exists, is the Creator, and sustains everything in existence
 - Creation cannot teach us everything needed for salvation
- Revelation is transmitted through Scripture and Tradition
 - The most certain form of Truth
 - Based on God, who is perfect and unchanging
 - Will never change
 - God has revealed everything necessary for salvation
- We can misinterpret Scripture
 - Science cannot show that Scripture is wrong
 - Science can show that we have misinterpreted Scripture
- Our Faith guides how we do science
 - It sets ethical and moral boundaries
 - It makes us aware of the limits of science
 - It shows that some theories are false because they contradict the Faith
- There is no conflict between faith and reason because all truth comes from God!